It has been six years since the inception of the Oakland International Black LGBT Film Festival and it is because of sponsors like you that we have become the nation's largest and one of only two full fledged Black LGBT film festivals in the world!

The Oakland International Black LGBT Film Festival continues to be the only African American Lesbian & Gay produced film festival that is a stand alone film festival (not a part of a pride) and consistently holds screenings in a real theater. We offer focused and broad community screening exposure of films by LGBT filmmakers of African descent who would not receive it otherwise.

Black LGBT arts events experience a great deal of difficulty securing sponsors - even when the economy is good! So you can imagine how challenging getting support is during our current economic downturn.

This year we are offering sponsors banner ads on our popular film festival website, opportunities to place items in our gift bags, banner placement at the theater and tabling opportunities for outreach purposes at our events. No other event exists like this in the Bay Area, in California or in America! Help us to keep this Oakland tradition alive. Become A Sponsor Today!
